And I, in my walking, stopped to look in.
What was this I saw?
A massive beast, hooved, and jawed.
With spikes upon its mighty brow,
I watched as he struck the turf and prowled.
And yet for all of his magnificence,
He couldn't get out of that wooden fence.

559

560

I’m almost next to Merlin
When it comes to his fame
Though to many men
I can be a pain
For I can be in the way
When I’m left too long
But to the wise, I might say
They sometimes think I belong.
What am I?
